

In another life – Ryan Dsouza

Verse1

Eve-ry night, I gently close my eyes
Drifting to a world , where dreams don't die,
Wake up to a sunny day, having fun the usual way
Out of the blue – we reach a bitter end , again

Pre-Chorus :

Sometimes its hard to explain
Why cant we be holding hands ,and dancing in the ra--in

Chorus :

Maybe , in another life, I'd be your, one-true-soul
By the ocean shore , always waiting there for you , like the morning sun
Where sea-gulls cry, and passion cant hide.
Lets just stay here , in this feeling, for a while – Break
In ano-ther life

Verse 2

We thought we had it all , until we saw the fall
Emotions took control , and made the final call
Voices in our heads , mapping all that lies ahead
Like that same old song , our minds , just play alo-ng

Pre-Chorus :

Sometimes its like a los-ing game
Why don't we just dream away, into that co-ol , summer- rain

Chorus :

Maybe , in another life, I'd be your, one-true-soul
By the ocean shore ,always waiting there for you ,like the morning sun
Where sea-gulls cry, and passion cant hide.
Lets just stay here , in this feeling, for a while – Break
In ano-ther life

(Bridge)

No more tears, no sad goodbyes , its feels so real, Woh , yeah
Like the ocean meets sky , no reason we cant heal ....

Saxophone solo

Where sea-gulls cry, and passion cant hide.
Lets just stay here , in this feeling, for a while

In ano-ther life
In another li- i- i fe
Ooh ooh ooh
