🎄 Ryan Dsouza Unwraps a Jazzy New Christmas Hit 🎄

“My Children Found My Gummies” brings humor, holiday swing, and fun to the season — following his 2024 release “The Letter.”

White Rock, B.C., Canada — [Nov 15, 2025] — Canadian artist Ryan Dsouza returns to spread festive cheer with his brand-new Christmas single, “My Children Found My Gummies.” Following the success of his 2024 holiday release “The Letter,” Ryan delivers a completely different kind of Christmas magic this year — a playful, upbeat swing tune brimming with rhythm, laughter, and seasonal charm.

“My Children Found My Gummies” captures the joyful chaos of Christmas morning through a witty, tongue-in-cheek story wrapped in irresistible retro energy. The track blends classic holiday swing, big-band jazz, and modern pop influences, evoking the nostalgic warmth of vintage Christmas records while sounding refreshingly current.

“I wanted to show a lighter, fun side of Christmas this year,” says Ryan. “Last year’s ‘The Letter’ was deeply emotional and reflective. This one is hilarious — a cheeky, jazzy story that still captures the magic of Christmas in its own way.”

Revisiting 2024’s Heartfelt Track: “The Letter”

In November 2024, Ryan released “The Letter,” a moving Christmas ballad that told the touching story of a long-lost wartime love letter from 1942 that finally found its way home. With its delicate melody and heartfelt lyrics, the song showcased Ryan’s emotional depth and vocal warmth — a striking contrast to the humor and playfulness of his new holiday single.

A Modern Take on Classic Christmas Music

With “My Children Found My Gummies,” Ryan continues to re-imagine contemporary Christmas music — blending vintage jazz, swing, and pop influences proving his versatility as a holiday artist who connects across generations and genres.

Written by John W. Selleck and composed and performed by Ryan Dsouza, with additional musical touches by Tony Dias, the single brings laughter, rhythm, and pure holiday joy to the season.

The new holiday single is also featured in the Behind the Vibe video series, offering fans a glimpse into Ryan’s creative process and storytelling. Beyond his solo work, Ryan curates the RD Music Collective, a playlist and community platform spotlighting original songs by independent artists. “My Children Found My Gummies” will be released on November 14, 2025, on all major streaming platforms including Spotify, Apple Music, and YouTube.
